

Scottish Emergency Maternity Care Course Workshop Programme

Workshop Date:

General objectives

Non-maternity care professionals will:

- Be confident to take steps in the initial management of an emergency
- Have recognised the need for clear lines of referral to maternity care providers
- Will have the opportunity to practice the skills they identify that are most applicable to their role and environment.
- Will have had an opportunity to observe and participate in scenarios simulating commonest maternity emergencies.

Time	Subject	Presenter	Comments
08.00 hrs	Faculty meeting	All trainers	Set up and run through of workshops
08.45hrs	Candidate registration
09.00 – 09.20	Introductions, the SMMDP and agree additional objectives for the day		Ref. 'Saving Mother's Lives'
09.20 – 09.50	Emergency Normal Birth Film		Film takes 10 mins to play

Coffee and Tea will be after 1st workshop 10.40 – 11.00

09.55 – 12.35 Workshops 1

Time	Topic	Instructors	Comments
09.55 – 10.40	Emergency Normal Birth	Red instructors Blue instructors	These sessions to be led by trainer and involving candidates according to their normal professional role.
11.00 – 11.45	A & B of Neonatal Resuscitation	Red Blue
11.50 – 12.35	Shoulder Dystocia & Breech demonstrations	Red Blue

12.35 – 13.15 Lunch13.15 – 16.10 Workshops 2

Time	Topic		Comments
13.15 – 14.15	Maternal Resuscitation – the differences	Red Blue	Short lecture prior to workshop session. These sessions to be led by trainer and involving candidates according to their normal professional role.
14.20 – 15.20	Postpartum Haemorrhage	Red Blue
15.25 – 16.25	Hypertension & Eclampsia Case discussion	Red Blue

Time	Subject	Presenter	Comments
16.30 – 17.00	Emergency Twin Delivery DVD		DVD takes 14 mins to play: Please use this DVD to discuss normal Birth. See notes

17.00 Questions and Answers and Course evaluation.

17.10 Instructors clear equipment and review course

Faculty: