

Scottish Generic Instructor Training Course

Course Descriptor

Course Title	Scottish Generic Instructor Training Course
Course Aim	The aim of the Scottish Generic Instructor Training Course is to provide participants with skills and knowledge to teach on Scottish Multiprofessional Maternity Development Programme courses.
Course Learning Outcomes	By undertaking this course, participants will be able to: Deliver a lecture effectively Teach clinical skills using the 4-stage technique. Facilitate scenario-based learning Provide constructive feedback to learners Assess learners according to course guidelines Facilitate discussion groups
Indicative Content	Introduction to the Scottish Multiprofessional Maternity Development Programme Care, maintenance and use of equipment Adult learning theory How to give a lecture Facilitating scenarios Facilitating discussions Teaching clinical skills Learner Feedback Assessment Responsibilities of Instructors
Teaching and Learning Strategies	Self study Lectures Role play

Assessment Strategy	Candidates are continuously assessed over the two-day programme. Candidates who successfully complete the course, then progress to undertake assessment on two further SMMDP courses as Instructor Candidates. Candidates who do not perform to the expected standard on the two-day programme are not permitted to undertake the Instructor Candidate assessment. They must repeat the Scottish Generic Instructor Training Course. Successful completion of the taught programme and the two assessed courses confers Instructor status.
Nominal Study Hours	Taught Programme – 16 hours Self study manual - 20 hours Instructor candidacy – teaching preparation 10 hours Course participation as Instructor Candidate - 14 hours Total: 60 hours
Minimum Number of Instructors/Participants	1 instructor for 4 candidates
Minimum number of candidates	8
Maximum number of candidates	20
Trainers	Trainers for the Scottish Generic Instructor Training Course must themselves be experienced trainers involved with the Scottish Multiprofessional Maternity Development Programme. The faculty should have representation from the various specialties within maternity services.
Equipment / Resources Required for Course	This will be determined according to the range of Instructors being prepared. (A sample equipment list is available).